Warriors Don't Cry Chapter 4
1. Give the chapter you just read a new title and explain why this would be a great title for the chapter.
2. Write a complete summary of what you read. Remember to use specific and important details from the chapter. (No lazy summaries!)
3. In chapter 4, Melba's mother said, "Under no circumstances must you ever mention to anyone what happened to us in the morning. Even if you have to tell a white lieTelling a white lie was something she'd never before given me permission to do." What might explain Melba's mother's contrast and contradiction ?
